Gentlemen:

In our letter of November 10 we advised you that data regarding the location of the building in which your machine is installed, had been omitted from the contracts. Up to the present writing we have not received your notary's authority to insert this missing information. Will you, therefore, give this matter your prompt attention so that our records may be finally adjusted.

With best wishes, we remain,

Yours very truly,

Dear Sirs:

We have received, through our New Orleans Agency, the papers executed in connection with your recent purchase of a Model 15 Linotype.

In looking them over, we observe that you omitted to insert in the contracts in the space provided on page two the necessary data regarding the location of the building in which the machine is to be installed. Kindly have your Notary (Mr. F. Bullock) send us a line authorizing us to insert the missing data.

Thanking you in anticipation of your immediate attention to this matter, we remain,

Yours very truly,
